Where the Tolls do not amount to more than one Half-penny on each Horſe drawing, &c. the Truſtees, if neceſſary, may take additional Tolls.

'XII. And whereas Complaint has been made that fraudulent Contrivances have been practiſed by 'Offenders, their Friends, and others, to evade the juſt Recovery of Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by 'the Laws relating to Turnpike Roads, by ſetting up colourable Proſecutions and Seizures with Intent to 'favour Offenders againſt the ſaid Laws, and to diſcourage juſt and real Proſecutions;' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for all Courts, and all and every Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace before whom there ſhall be any Action, Information or Proceeding, for any Penalty or Forfeiture inflicted by any Act or Acts of Parliament made or to be made for repairing and amending Turnpike Roads, or any way relating to or concerning the ſame; and they are hereby required, where any prior Seizure, Action, Information or Conviction, ſhall be ſet up, or inſiſted upon, by way of Defence, or to defeat any Action, Information or Proceeding, or any Seizure for any Forfeiture or Penalty inflicted as aforeſaid, to examine into the real Merits of ſuch prior Seizure, Action, Information, Proceeding or Conviction; and if thereupon it ſhall appear that the ſame was not done, made or proſecuted effectually, to recover and apply the Penalty or Forfeiture for the true and real Ends and Purpoſes for which ſuch Penalties or Forfeitures were enacted, but to favour the Offender, ſuch prior Seizure, Action, Information or Conviction, ſhall be deemed to be fraudulent, and null and void, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever; and every ſuch Court, Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, ſhall proceed to determine and give Judgment, as if no ſuch prior Seizure, Action, Information or Conviction had been made, had, proſecuted or obtained.

Prior Proſecutions and Seizures to favour Offenders deemed fraudulent, and the Merits to be examined.

Judgment to be given as if no ſuch Seizure had been.

'XIII. And whereas great Miſchief hath ariſen from mean Perſons acting as Truſtees in the Execution 'of ſuch Acts of Parliament made for repairing publick Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England, 'as do not direct and require that the Truſtees thereby appointed ſhall be qualified to act as ſuch by the 'Poſſeſſion of Real or Perſonal Eſtate to a certain Value;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, no Perſon ſhall be qualified, or capable of acting acting as a Truſtee in the Execution of any ſuch Act as aforeſaid, unleſs he ſhall be in his own Right, or in Right of his Wife, in the actual Poſſeſſion or Receipt of the Rents and Profits of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, of the clear yearly Value of forty Pounds, or poſſeſſed of, or intitled to, Perſonal Eſtate alone, or Real and Perſonal Eſtate together, to the Value of eight hundred Pounds, or ſhall be Heir Apparent of a Perſon poſſeſſed of an Eſtate in Land of the clear yearly Value of eighty Pounds, and unleſs he ſhall (not being ſuch Heir Apparent as aforeſaid) before he acts as ſuch Truſtee, take and ſubſcribe the Oath following before any two or more of the Truſtees appointed or to be appointed by or in purſuance of ſuch Act, who are hereby authorized and required to adminiſter the ſame in the Words, or to the Effect following; that is to ſay, to be atteſted on Oath.

General Qualification of Truſtees;

'I A. B. do ſwear, That I truly and bona fide am in my own Right, or in Right of my Wife, in the actual Poſſeſſion and Enjoyment, or Receipt of the Rents and Profits of Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments of the clear yearly Value of forty Pounds, or poſſeſſed of, or intitled to a Perſonal Eſtate alone, or Real and Perſonal Eſtate together, to the Value of eight hundred Pounds.

'So help me GOD.'

Penalty of acting if not qualified, 50 l.

And if any Perſon ſhall preſume to act contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, every ſuch Perſon ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds to any Perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame; to be recovered in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, or by Bill, Suit or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

The Words Common Stage Waggon, or Cart, to be painted on ſuch Carriages with narrow Wheels.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Owner or Owners of any common Stage Waggon or Cart, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, having the Fellies of the Wheels of leſs Breadth and Gauge than nine Inches, or ſix Inches, from Side to Side, ſhall over and above what he or they is or are obliged by Law to write or paint, or cauſe to be written or painted, upon his or their Waggon or Cart, paint or cauſe to be painted, upon the Tilt of every ſuch Waggon or Cart which has a Tilt, and upon the moſt conſpicuous Part of ſuch Waggon or Cart which has not a Tilt, the following Words in large and legible Characters; that is to ſay, COMMON STAGE WAGGON, or CART, as the Caſe may be; and if any Owner or Owners of any ſuch Waggon or Cart ſhall, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, travel with or uſe by himſelf or Servant, any ſuch Waggon or Cart, without the Words hereby required to be painted as aforeſaid, he ſhall forfeit and loſe one of the Horſes or Beaſts of Draught (not being the Shaft or Thill Horſe) together with all the Geers and Accoutrements to ſuch Horſe or Beaſt of Draught belonging, to the ſole Uſe and Benefit of the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſeize or diſtrain the ſame; and the Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Seizure or Diſtreſs, ſhall proceed in like manner, and be intitled to the like Remedy, as is directed and given in Caſes of Seizures of Horſes by the ſaid Act made in the twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty.

Penalty, and how to proceed therein.

Method of Proſecution for Recovery of Penalties which are pecuniary;

'XV. And whereas many Perſons are deterred from proſecuting Offences committed againſt the ſeveral 'Turnpike Laws, and it is inconvenient to others being upon Journies, or engaged on neceſſary Buſineſs, 'to proſecute the ſame as the Law now ſtands: And whereas many Laws have been made for and relating 'to Turnpike Roads ſince the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and more Acts of 'the ſame Kind are likely to be made;' Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Proſecutor or Informer may at his Election ſue for and recover any Forfeiture or Penalty impoſed by this or any Act or Acts of Parliament made or to be made for erecting Turnpikes for repairing and amending Turnpike Roads, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Turnpike Roads, in the ſame Manner as ſuch Forfeitures and Penalties are ſeverally and reſpectively directed to be ſued for and recovered, or by Action at Law, to be brought by ſuch Informer or Proſecutor in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter in Manner following, (that is to ſay) Where any Perſon ſhall be liable to any ſuch pecuniary Penalty, it ſhall be lawful to ſue for and recover the ſame by Action of Debt, in which it ſhall be ſufficient to declare that the Defendant is indebted to the Plaintiff in the Sum of and of ſuch where the Horſe, &c. is forfeited.

being forfeited by an Act, intituled, An Act to amend an Act made in the twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the Amendment and Preſervation of the publick Highways and Turnpike Roads of this Kingdom, and for the more effectual Execution of the Laws relating thereto: And where the Penalty or Forfeiture is or ſhall be of any Horſe or Beaſt of Draught, or other Goods, by an Action of Trover againſt the Perſon liable to ſuch Penalty, in which the Value of any ſuch Horſe, Beaſt of Draught, or other Goods, as is or are liable to the Forfeiture, ſhall be given in Damages, without any Proof of any Seizure or Demand.

Limitation of Actions.

XVI. Provided, That there ſhall not be more than one Recovery for the ſame Offence duly and bona fide, and without Fraud, had and obtained for the ſame; and that no Action ſhall be brought by virtue of this Act in any of his Majeſty's ſaid Courts of Record, unleſs the ſame be brought before the End of ſix Months after the Offence committed.

Surveyor, Collectors, &c. neglecting to ſeize ſupernumerary Horſes, or to give Information,

XVII. And, to enforce further a due Obſervation of this and the ſaid recited Act, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Surveyor of any Turnpike Road, and every Toll-gatherer, and all ſuch Perſons employed by Commiſſioners and Truſtees appointed for the repairing Roads, as receive Salaries or Rewards, who ſhall wilfully neglect to ſeize any ſupernumerary Horſe or Horſes drawing in any Waggon, Wain or Cart, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this and the ſaid recited Act, and ſhall alſo wilfully neglect to lay ſuch Information upon Oath before one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County wherein ſuch Offence was committed, or before the proper Commiſſioners or Truſtees at their reſpective Meetings, as by the ſaid recited Act is directed, ſhall, upon due Information made upon Oath before one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County or Place, forfeit the Sum forfeit 10l. 5l. to the Informer, &c.

Officers, &c. not liable for Neglects committed before 14 June 1755.

XVIII. Provided, That no such Surveyor, or other Person, shall be liable to the said Penalty for any such wilful Neglect committed before the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five.

An Act for making perpetual an Act passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for the better preventing Thefts and Robberies, and for regulating Places of publick Entertainment, and punishing Persons keeping disorderly Houses; for the further punishing Persons selling Ale or other Liquors without Licence; for the preventing the burning or destroying of Gos, Furze or Ferne, in Forests or Chaces; for giving further Time for the Payment of Duties omitted to be paid for the Indentures or Contracts of Clerks and Apprentices, and for the filing of Affidavits of the Execution of Contracts of Clerks to Attornies and Sollicitors.

Act 25 Geo. 2. c. 36. made perpetual.

'WHEREAS an Act passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better preventing Thefts and Robberies, and for regulating Places of public Entertainment, and punishing Persons keeping disorderly Houses, which was to continue in Force until the Expiration of three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, has by Experience been found useful and beneficial, and is near expiring;' May it therefore please your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall be, and the same is hereby made perpetual.

26 Geo. 2. c. 31.

'II. And whereas Doubts have arisen upon the Construction of an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for regulating the Manner of licensing Ale-houses, in that Part of Great Britain called England; and for the more easy convicting Persons selling Ale and other Liquors without Licence, whether a Person having been convicted of three several Offences in selling Ale, Beer or other Liquors, without a Licence from two Justices of the Peace, as by the said Act is directed, is liable to any Punishment for any such Offence, of which he may be guilty after such Third Conviction;' Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person so selling without a Licence as aforesaid, after such third Conviction, shall, for every such Offence, so often as it shall happen, forfeit the Sum of six Pounds, to be levied and disposed of in like manner as the Forfeitures on the first, second and third Conviction are directed to be, in and by the said Act; and in case no sufficient Distress shall be found, whereon to levy the said several Forfeitures, then the Justice of the Peace who shall have convicted such Offender, shall and may commit him or her so convicted to the common Gaol, or other Prison or House of Correction within his Jurisdiction, without Bail or Mainprize, until such Offender shall be discharged by Order of the Court of General or Quarter Sessions.

Offenders, after third Conviction, to forfeit 6l. for every Offence.

See farther 29 Geo. 2. c. 12.

'III. Whereas the burning and destroying of Gos, Furze and Fern, in and upon Forests and Chaces, as it is frequently done by divers disorderly and dissolute Persons, doth not only destroy the Cover necessary for the Preservation of the Deer and Game there, but hath also been the Occasion of burning, damaging and destroying of great Quantities of Timber, young Springs of Wood and Underwood and Fences, within the said Forests and Chaces, and Places thereunto adjacent, to the great Damage and Prejudice of the Owners and Proprietors thereof; and the Laws now in Being are not sufficient to prevent the same;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons not having a Right or legal Licence to do the same, shall at any Time after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five set fire to, burn or destroy, or shall abet, aid or assist in, or at the burning or destroying of any Gos, Furze or Fern, growing or being in or upon any Forest or Chace, within that Part of Great Britain called England, without the Licence or Consent of the Owner or Proprietor, or the Person chiefly intrusted with the Care, Oversight, and Custody of such Forest or Chace, or some Part thereof, and being brought before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division or Place, where such Forest or Chace shall lie, and shall be thereof convicted by Confession, or upon the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses (which Oath such Justice or Justices is and are hereby impowered to administer) or upon the View of such Justice or Justices, every such Person or Persons being so convicted, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding five Pounds, nor less than forty Shillings, one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where the Offence shall be committed; which Penalty, in case the same be not forthwith paid, shall and to forfeit not less than 40 s. or more than 5 l.

and may be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant or Warrants under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices; and in caſe no ſufficient Diſtreſs can be found, then it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices to commit ſuch Offender or Offenders to the common Gaol of the County or Place where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, for any Time not exceeding three Months, nor leſs than one Month. to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale, &c.

IV. And, for the Relief of any Perſon or Perſons, who, through Neglect or Inadvertency, have omitted to pay the ſeveral Rates and Duties, or any Part thereof, upon Monies given, paid, contracted or agreed for, with or in relation to any Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, who hath been put or placed to or with any Maſter or Miſtreſs to learn any Profeſſion, Trade or Employment, and to have ſuch Indentures, or other Writings which contain the Covenants, Articles, Contracts or Agreements, relating to the Service of ſuch Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, ſtamped within the Times by the ſeveral Acts of Parliament for thoſe Purpoſes reſpectively limited, or who have alſo in like manner omitted to inſert and write, in Words at Length, in ſuch Indentures or other Writings as aforeſaid, the full Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, received or in any wiſe directly or indirectly given, paid, or agreed or contracted for, with or in relation to every ſuch Clerk, Apprentice or Servant as aforeſaid; Be it enacted, That upon Payment of the Rates and Duties upon Monies, or ſuch Part of ſuch Monies, ſo neglected or omitted to be paid as aforeſaid, on or before the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-five, to ſuch Perſon or Perſons to whom the ſame ought to be paid, and tendering the ſaid Indentures or other Writings to be ſtamped at the ſame Time, or at any Time on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-five (of which timely Notice is to be given in the London Gazette) the ſame Indentures or other Writings ſhall be good and available in Law and Equity, and may be given in Evidence in any Court whatſoever; and the Clerk, Apprentice or Servant therein named, ſhall be capable of following and exerciſing their reſpective intended Trades or Employments, as fully as if the ſaid Rates and Duties ſo omitted had been duly paid, and the full Sum or Sums received or agreed for as aforeſaid had been inſerted; and the Perſons who have incurred any Penalties by the Omiſſions aforeſaid, ſhall be acquitted and diſcharged of and from the ſaid Penalties; any Thing in the ſaid former Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding. Further Time allowed for Payment of the Duties omitted to be paid for Clerks and Apprentices.

'V. And whereas divers Perſons through Miſtake, Abſence, or ſome unavoidable Accident, to the Pre-'judice of Infants, and others, have omitted to cauſe Affidavits to be made and filed in the proper Offices 'of the actual Execution of ſeveral Contracts in Writing to ſerve as Clerks to Attornies and Sollicitors, 'within the Time limited and expreſſed by certain Acts paſſed in the twenty-ſecond and twenty-fourth 'Years of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, whereby many Perſons may be in danger of incurring the Diſabi-'lities of the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign ſpecified;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons who have omitted to cauſe ſuch Affidavit or Affidavits to be made and filed as aforeſaid, and who ſhall, on or before the firſt Day of Hillary Term next, cauſe one or more Affidavit or Affidavits to be made and filed in ſuch manner as directed by the ſaid laſt recited Acts, or either of them, ſhall be and are hereby indemnified, freed and diſcharged from and againſt all Penalties, Forfeitures, Incapacities and Diſabilities in the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign mentioned, incurred or to be incurred, for or by reaſon of any Neglect or Omiſſion in cauſing ſuch Affidavit or Affidavits ſo to be made and filed as aforeſaid, according to the Directions of the ſaid laſt recited Acts, or either of them; and ſuch Affidavit or Affidavits ſo to be made and filed as aforeſaid, ſhall be as effectual to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame had been made and filed within the reſpective Times limited by the ſaid ſeveral laſt recited Acts, or either of them. Further Time allowed for filing of Affidavits of the Execution of Contracts of Clerks to Attornies.

CAP. XX.

An Act for continuing, explaining, and amending the ſeveral Acts of Parliament made for the further Encouragement of the Whale Fiſhery carried on by his Majeſty's Subjects; and to authorize the Payment of the Bounty to Thomas Hood and others, upon three Ships fitted out for the ſaid Fiſhery, and loſt in the Greenland Seas.

'WHEREAS divers Acts of Parliament have been made for the Encouragement of his Majeſty's 'Subjects to carry on and improve the Whale Fiſhery, which by the Bounties given by the ſaid Acts 'has of late Years gradually increaſed, and by the Continuance thereof will ſtill further increaſe, to the great 'Advantage of the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom;' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That an Act made in the fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for encouraging the Greenland Fiſhery, which was to be in force for nine Years, from the twenty-fifth Day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and thirty-one, and which Act by an Act of Parliament made in the thirteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for continuing ſeveral Laws therein mentioned, relating to the Præmiums upon the Importation of Maſts, Yards and Bowſprits, Tar, Pitch and Turpentine; to Britiſh made Sail Cloth, and the Duties payable on Foreign Sail Cloth; to the Greenland and to the Whale Fiſhery; for granting a further Bounty for all Ships employed in the Whale Fiſhery during the preſent War; for exempting Harpooners and others employed in the Greenland Fiſhery Trade, from being impreſſed; and for giving further Time for the Payment of Duties omitted to be paid for the Indentures and Contracts of Clerks and Apprentices, was continued unto the twenty-fifth Day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and which Act, by an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty's 5 Geo. 2. c. 28. 12 Geo. 2. c. 28. 22 Geo. 2. c. 45.

jesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement and Enlargement of the Whole Fishery, and for continuing such Laws as are therein mentioned, relating thereto; and for the Naturalization of such foreign Protestants as shall serve for the Time therein mentioned, on board such Ships as shall be fitted out for the said Fishery, was further continued unto the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fifty-seven, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; shall be, and the same is hereby further continued, from the Time in the said last-mentioned Act limited for the Expiration thereof, unto the twenty-fifth Day of December which shall be in the Year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

further continued to 25 Dec. 1764, &c.

6 Geo. 1. c. 33.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act made in the sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement of the Whale Fishery, carried on by his Majesty's British Subjects; which was to be in force during the Continuance of the last-mentioned Act of the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for encouraging the Greenland Fishery; and which was by the said Act of the thirteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign continued unto the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fifty, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which Act was by the said Act of the twenty-second Year of his present Majesty's Reign continued unto the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fifty-seven, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be, and the same is hereby further continued, from the Time in the said last-mentioned Act limited for the Expiration thereof, unto the twenty-fifth Day of December which shall be in the Year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

continued to 25 Dec. 1764, &c.

22 Geo. 2. c. 45. continued to 25 Dec. 1764.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act of the twenty-second Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement and Enlargement of the Whale Fishery, and for continuing such Laws as are therein mentioned, relating thereto; and for the Naturalization of such foreign Protestants, as shall serve for the Time therein mentioned, on board such Ships as shall be fitted out for the said Fishery, which was to be in force from the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, until the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fifty-seven, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be, and the same is hereby continued, from the Time therein limited for the Expiration thereof, unto the twenty-fifth Day of December in the Year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Tonnage Bounty to be paid out of any other of the Revenues, if the old Subsidy be not sufficient.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively, to order the respective Receivers General of the Customs, in case the Monies remaining in their Hands arising from the old Subsidy shall not be sufficient to satisfy the said Bounty of forty Shillings per Ton, payable on all Ships employed in the said Fishery, according to the Directions of the said several Acts, and of this present Act, to pay the same out of any Monies that shall be in their Hands arising from any of the Duties and Revenues under their Management respectively.

An Apprentice, for every 50 Tons, to be on board each Ship, &c.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Ship which shall be employed in the said Fishery, shall, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December in the Year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-seven, have on board an Apprentice indentured for the Space of three Years at the least, for every fifty Tons Burthen, who shall be accounted as one of the Number of Men which by Law ought to be on board such Ship; and in case any Ship shall proceed on the Whale Fishery, without conforming to the above Regulation, the Owner or Owners of every Ship so offending, shall lose the Bounty which would otherwise be payable thereon.

No larger Bounty to be paid than for Ships of 400 Tons.

VI. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December in the Year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-seven, no Ship to be employed in the said Fishery, although she be above the Burthen of four hundred Tons, shall be intitled to a larger Bounty than a Ship of four hundred Tons would be intitled to.

Ships above that Burthen not required to be fitted out otherwise than Vessels of 400 Tons, VII. Provided always, That nothing in the said former Acts, or in this present Act contained, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to oblige the Owner or Owners of any Ship above the Burthen of four hundred Tons, in order to intitle him or them to the said Bounty, to fit out, equip and man any such Ship, otherwise than as a Ship of the Burthen of four hundred Tons only is by the said Acts or by this present Act required to be fitted out, equipped and manned.

'VIII. And whereas by the said Acts made in the sixth and twenty-second Years of the Reign of his 'present Majesty, the Bounty of forty Shillings per Ton is confined to Ships of the Burthen of two hun-'dred Tons and upwards; and it hath been found by Experience, that Ships under the Burthen of two 'hundred Tons are fit for the said Fishery;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five, and during the Continuance of the said Bounty of forty Shillings per Ton, payable as aforesaid, the same shall be paid to the Owners of all Ships under the Burthen of two hundred Tons, which shall be employed in the said Fishery, according to the Admeasurement thereof, in such Manner, and by and under such Rules, Directions and Restrictions, as by the said Acts, and by this present Act, the said Bounty is made payable to the Owners of Ships of the Burthen of two hundred Tons and upwards, employed in the said Fishery; provided the Owner of no such Ship shall be intitled to such Bounty, unless he shall in all Respects conform to the Regulations prescribed by the said recited Acts, and by this present Act, to the Owners of Ships of the Burthen of two hundred Tons.

Bounty allowed to Vessels under 200 Tons.

Vessels under 200 Tons which shall sail before 25 March 1755,

'IX. And whereas the Dispatch of Ships to the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, and Seas adjacent, 'on the Whale Fishery, must of Necessity be within the Months of March or April;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Owner or Owners of any Ship or Ships under the Burthen of two hundred hundred Tons, which shall sail on the said Voyage and Fishery on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five, who have conformed themselves in all Respects to the Rules and Directions prescribed by the said Acts of the sixth and twenty-second Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, and of this present Act, shall be intitled to the said Bounty of forty Shillings per Ton, according to the Admeasurement of such Ship or Ships respectively. intitled to the Bounty.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs for England and Scotland respectively, shall, at the Beginning of every Session of Parliament, lay before both Houses of Parliament an Account in Writing, under their Hands, of what Number of Ships have been employed in the Whale Fishery, to Davis's Streights and the Greenland Seas, with their respective Names and Burthens, from whence they were fitted out, and at what Port in Great Britain they were discharged, and also what Quantity of Oil or Whale Fins each Ship shall have imported. Commissioners of the Customs to report to Parliament the Ships employed in the Fishery.

'XI. And whereas Thomas Hood, James Manbey, and Leonard Bowles of London, Merchants, did fit out 'in the Year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-four, three Ships called the Elizabeth and Mary, the 'Mary and the Argus, for the Whale Fishery in the Greenland Seas, in the Manner prescribed and appointed 'by the said Acts, and which said Ships were actually employed in the said Fishery, but were unavoidably 'lost in the said Seas;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, shall be, and he or they are hereby impowered to direct, if he or they think fit, the Payment of the Bounties which the said Thomas Hood, James Manbey, and Leonard Bowles, would have been intitled to, in case the said Ships had returned to this Kingdom; any Thing in the said two several Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding. Bounties to be paid to Hood, Manbey, and Bowles, for Vessels employed and lost in the Greenland Seas.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for settling the Draining of the Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford Level, taking Notice that Francis Earl of Bedford, according to a Law of Sewers, made at King's Lynn in the sixth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the First, had undertaken the Draining of the said Great Level, situate within the Counties of Northampton, Norfolk, Suffolk, Lincoln, Cambridge and Huntingdon, and the Isle of Ely, and bounded as in the said Act is particularly mentioned and described; and that he the said Earl was to have for his Recompence ninety-five thousand Acres of the Grounds within the said Level, with convenient Highways and Passages to the same; and that William Earl of Bedford, Son and Heir of the said Earl Francis, with divers of his Adventurers and Participants, had proceeded in the completing and finishing of the said Works; but that the same could not be preserved without constant Care, great Charge and orderly Government; it was therefore, amongst other Things, enacted, That the said William Earl of Bedford, and the Adventurers and Participants of the said Earl Francis and Earl William, or either of them, their Heirs and Assigns, in such Manner as in the said Act is contained, should be a Body Politick and Corporate, in Deed and Name, and have Succession for ever, by the Name of The Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Company of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens; with Power to lay Taxes upon the said ninety-five thousand Acres only (twelve thousand Acres whereof had been designed and intended for his late Majesty King CHARLES the First, and had been set forth and allotted by Bounds in Severalty) for the Support, Maintenance and Preservation of the said Great Level, and to levy the same with Penalties for Non-payment, and to do all other Things in order to the Support, Maintenance and Preservation of the said Great Level and Works made, and to be made, in such Manner as in the said Act is mentioned: And whereas by another Act made in the twentieth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the taxing and assessing of the Lands of the Adventurers within the Great Level of the Fens, it was enacted, That eighty-three thousand Acres, Parcel of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, should from Time to Time be taxed and assessed by a gradual Acre-tax, of different Sorts and Values of Lands; and that the said twelve thousand Acres, Residue of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, should be rated at a Medium of the whole Tax, to be from Time to Time assessed upon the said ninety five thousand Acres: And to the End that the said eighty-three thousand Acres might be more equally taxed by a gradual Tax, certain Persons in the same Act named were appointed Surveyors and Valuers of the said eighty-three thousand Acres; and were, within the Time limited by the said Act, to digest the said eighty-three thousand Acres into a Number of Sorts and Degrees, not under the Number of seven Sorts and Degrees, and to rate and tax such Degrees, and digest the same into Schedules in Writing, and make Returns thereof, upon their Oaths, into the Fen Office, in such Manner as by the said Act is prescribed: And whereas by Valuations made by the several Persons appointed by the said Act of the twentieth of King CHARLES the Second, and duly returned into the Office of the said Corporation in London, the said eighty-three thousand Acres were set out and digested into eleven different Sorts and Degrees of Land, and the several Sums to be rated and assessed upon each of the said Sorts and Degrees, as their respective Proportions of the Taxes to be paid to the said Corporation were by the said Valuations settled and limited; and the said eighty-three thousand Acres have always since been taxed by a gradual Acre-tax, according to the Degrees and Proportions so set out and allotted, and the said twelve thousand Acres at a Medium of such Tax; a single Tax upon the said eighty-three thousand Acres, together with the Produce of a proportionable Tax upon the said twelve thousand Acres, amounting to the Sum of five thousand and fifty-one Pounds seven Shillings and two Pence: And whereas by another Act made in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for discharging the Corporation of the Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Company of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens, commonly called Bedford Level, from a Debt due to the Duke of Bedford and Earl of Lincoln; and for enabling the Proprietors of Lands in the North Level, Part of the said Great Level, to raise Money to discharge the Proportion of the said North Level in the Debts of the said Corporation; and for ascertaining and appropriating the Taxes to be laid on the said North Level; and for the more effectual draining and preserving the said North Level, and divers Lands adjoining thereto, in the Manor of Crowland; taking Notice (amongst other Things) that at a Court of the said Corporation, held the tenth Day of March one thousand six hundred and ninety-seven, the said Corporation declared, that the said Great Level should be distinguished by the several Names of the North Level, Middle Level, and South Level; and also taking Notice that the said Corporation, in order to support and preserve the several Works for draining the said Great Level, had been obliged to borrow and that the Sum of one thousand eight 'hundred Pounds, to be raised from the taxable Lands, lying within the said North Level, in the Man-'ner by the said Act directed, should, when raised, be applied in Discharge of the Proportion of the 'said North Level of and in the Residue of the said Debt of forty-nine thousand one hundred fifty-three 'Pounds eleven Shillings and nine Pence: And it was by the said last-mentioned Act also further 'enacted and declared, That the Taxes chargeable by virtue of the said Acts of the fifteenth and twen-'tieth Years of King CHARLES the Second, upon the taxable Lands within the said North Level, 'should be always thereafter fixed and settled upon so much thereof as shall be Part of the said eighty-'three thousand Acres, at a Tax and a Quarter, and on so much thereof as shall be Part of the said 'twelve thousand Acres, in Proportion thereto, according to the said Act of the twentieth of King 'CHARLES the Second, and should not be lessened or increased under any Pretence whatsoever; and 'that all the Money which should arise or be produced by the said Taxes, within the said North Level, 'and all other the Rents and Revenues arising and payable to the said Corporation, by, from or out 'of the said North Level, or any Part thereof, should from thenceforth be applied and disposed of by 'the said Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty, and their Successors, in and about the several Banks and 'Works of the said North Level, in the said Act particularly mentioned, and to and for no other 'Purpose whatsoever; and that the said North Level, 'or the Lands, Tenements, Rents, Revenues and Taxes thereof, or of any Part thereof, should not be 'subject or liable to the Payment of any Debt, or Sum or Sums of Money, which should at any Time 'thereafter be contracted, taken up or borrowed by the said Corporation, for or on Account of the said 'Middle or South Levels, or either of them; and also that the said Middle and South Levels, or either of 'them, or the Lands, Tenements, Rents, Revenues and Taxes of them or either of them, should not be 'subject or liable to the Payment of any Debt, or Sum or Sums of Money whatsoever, which should at 'any Time thereafter be contracted, taken up or borrowed by the said Corporation, on Account of the said 'North Level: And whereas, the said Sum of one thousand eight hundred Pounds has been raised and ap-'plied in pursuance of the said Act of the twenty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign; whereby the Debt of the said Corporation is reduced to 'the Sum of twenty-seven thousand four hundred and forty Pounds: And whereas the said Debt of 'twenty-seven thousand four hundred and forty Pounds is secured by Bonds, under the Seal of the 'said Corporation, who have thereby bound and obliged themselves to pay the several Sums mentioned 'in the said respective Bonds; and inasmuch as the said Sum of twenty-seven thousand four hundred 'and forty Pounds is, by the said Act of the twenty-seventh Year of his present Majesty, become a 'Charge upon the said Middle and South Levels only, it is become necessary to exchange the Bonds 'for securing the said Debt, and to mention in the new Bonds, to be given for that Purpose, that the 'Money so to be secured is due from the said Middle and South Levels only: And whereas Doubts 'have arisen amongst the Creditors of the said Corporation, concerning the Securities they now have 'for their respective Debts, by reason that the said Corporation have it in their Power, under the be-'fore-mentioned Acts of the fifteenth and twentieth of King CHARLES the Second, either to tax such 'Parts of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, as lie within the said Middle and South Levels, with 'very small Taxes, or not to tax the same at all, whereby the Fund for the Payment of the Debts 'due to the said Creditors may become deficient: And whereas the said Corporation may have Occa-'sion to borrow further Sums of Money for the Support and Preservation of the said Great Level; 'and it will be necessary to distinguish in all future Bonds to be entered into by the said Corporation, 'whether the Money borrowed upon such Bonds be for or on Account of the said Middle and South 'Levels, or for or on Account of the said North Level:' To the End therefore that a sufficient Fund may be at all Times hereafter raised and secured for Payment of the Bonds of the said Corporation; and that the Bonds given by the said Corporation for the said Sum of twenty-seven thousand four hundred and forty Pounds may be exchanged as aforesaid; and that the said Corporation may be enabled to borrow such further Sums as shall be necessary for the Support and Preservation of the said Great Level; CAP. XVIII.

An Act to obviate a Doubt arisen on an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; and for Relief of Sheriffs and Keepers of Prisons, in respect to Escapes of such Persons as were prevented by the said Doubt from being discharged under the said Act.

28 Geo. 2. c. 13.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; it is (amongst other Things) enacted, That all Sheriffs, Gaolers or Keepers of Prisons in any County, Riding, Division, City, Town and Liberty, within this Kingdom, were required to make an exact alphabetical List of the Names of all such Persons who on the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five, were in their actual Custody, together with the Names of the Persons at whose Suit such Prisoners were detained, and deliver the same upon Oath to the Justices at their first General or Quarter Sessions to be held after the thirty-first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five; as also to fix upon the Gate of the said Prisons true Copies of the said Lists ten Days before the said Sessions: And it was thereby further enacted, That the Persons whose Names were inserted in such Lists, and who at the Time in the said recited Act mentioned were in the actual Custody of any Sheriff or Sheriffs, Gaoler or Gaolers, Keeper or Keepers of Prisons, taking the Oath, and giving such Notice to their Creditors as the said Act requires, might be released and discharged from their Imprisonment: And whereas it was in most Places impracticable for Sheriffs, Gaolers, or Keepers of Prisons to deliver in Lists at the Time directed by the said Act, as the first General or Quarter Sessions next after the thirty-first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five, was held before the said Act passed into a Law: And whereas a Doubt has arisen, whether the Justices in any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for any County, Riding, Division, City, Town or Liberty, within this Kingdom, had, by the said above recited Act, a Power to discharge any Prisoner or Prisoners at any General or Quarter Sessions held subsequent to that held after the thirty-first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five; and whether the Discharges of Prisoners by the Justices, in pursuance of the said recited Act, have been legal: And whereas the Justices of the Peace for the County Palatine of Lancaster, by reason of such Doubt, have absolutely refused to discharge the Prisoners in the Gaols of their several Jurisdictions; which Case may likewise have happened in other Places, whereby they are still detained in a loathsome Prison: And whereas notwithstanding such Doubt the Justices in many Counties have proceeded to discharge, and have discharged Prisoners from many Gaols in this Kingdom, at the Sessions held subsequent to that held next after the thirty-first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five;' To obviate which Doubt, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace for any County, Riding, Division, City, Town or Liberty, within this Kingdom, at their General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be held for such County, Riding, Division, City, Town or Liberty, after the passing of this Act, or at any subsequent General or Quarter Sessions (within the Time limited by the said recited Act) to direct and order the Sheriff or Sheriffs, Gaoler or Gaolers, Keeper or Keepers of Prisons, to bring up any Person or Persons, who was, or were, in their actual Custody, on the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five; and upon such Prisoner and Prisoners pursuing the Directions of the said former Act, such Justices may (if they see just Cause) release and discharge such Prisoner or Prisoners from their Imprisonment; any thing in this or the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Justices at their Quarter-Sessions, may order Prisoners for Debt on 1 Jan. 1755, to be brought before them, to be discharged on their conforming to the recited Act.

II. And

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Action has been, or shall be brought against any Sheriff, Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison, on account of the Escape of any such Prisoner so detained as aforesaid, the Defendant in such Action, upon Proof made that such Prisoner had complied, as far as in him lay, with all the Directions in the said Act, and was detained in Custody, only by reason of the said Doubt, shall not be liable to answer or make Satisfaction to the Plaintiff, to any greater Amount than the Value of the Estate and Effects comprised in the Schedule given in and sworn to by such Prisoner, pursuant to the Directions of the said Act, in case the whole shall appear to have been wasted or secreted, or the Value of so much thereof, as shall appear to have been wasted or secreted, subsequent to the Time when such Schedule was delivered to the Clerk of the Peace.

Sheriff or Gaoler sued for Escape of Prisoner, who had complied with the recited Act, liable only for the Estate or Effects wasted or secreted since Delivery of Prisoner's Schedule.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Discharges of Prisoners by the Justices of the Peace in pursuance of the herein before recited Act, where such Prisoners have complied with every Direction of the said Act, are hereby declared to be good and legal Discharges, to all Intents and Purposes; and such Justices, and all Sheriffs, Gaolers, Keepers of Prisons, and every other Person or Persons acting under them, are hereby indemnified for what they may have done in pursuance thereof, in the same Manner as if no such Doubt had arisen.

Discharge of Prisoners in pursuance of the recited Act, declared to be valid.

Proviso concerning the imbanked Grounds of VinerSmall, Esq;

they have hitherto had and enjoyed, and still do enjoy, for running off the Waters of the said Fen, through Grunty Fen Drain, towards the Outfall.

'XXIX. And whereas by the said Act of the fifteenth Year of King CHARLES the Second, it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That the Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators of the Great Level, should have a Power to lay Taxes upon the ninety-five thousand Acres of Land (allotted as a Recompence for the Draining of the said Great Level) for the Support, Maintenance and Preservation of the said Great Level, and to levy the same with Penalties for Non-payment; and that the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, should have Power to sell so much, or such Parts and Proportions of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, upon which any Tax should be in Arrear, or Penalties, in such Proportions as the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, should judge to be sufficient to raise such Taxes and Penalties: And whereas several Parcels of the said ninety-five thousand Acres of Land, lying within the said District, bounded and described as aforesaid, were at different Times put up to Sale, in pursuance and according to the Directions of the said Act of the fifteenth of King CHARLES the Second, and of another Act made in the twentieth Year of the said King, intituled, An Act for the Taxing and Assessing of the Lands of the Adventurers within the Great Level of the Fens, in order to raise the Taxes and Penalties in Arrear, for and in respect of the said Lands; but the same not being thought worth the Taxes and Penalties due thereon, such Lands could not be sold so as to raise such Penalties and Taxes; and the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, having directed their Officers, from Time to Time, to bid for such Lands as could not be sold for the Amount of the Taxes and Penalties respectively due thereon, they the said Officers became the Purchasers of such Lands, and have either conveyed the same to the said Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty, or declared such Purchases to have been made in Trust for the said Corporation; and the Lands so purchased have ever since such Purchases respectively made thereof remained vested in the said Corporation, and been called Invested Lands, and have been annually rated and assessed to the Taxes laid upon the said ninety-five thousand Acres, according to their respective Proportions, in pursuance of the said Acts of the fifteenth and twentieth of King CHARLES the Second; but such Taxes not having been raised or paid, the said Corporation have, from Time to Time, lett such invested Lands, or such Parts thereof as they could find Tenants for, at such Rents as could be procured for the same; but the Profits arising from the Lands so lett have been very small and inconsiderable, and much less than the Taxes with which such Lands have been assessed: And whereas the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, apprehending it would be for the Benefit of the said Corporation, that such invested Lands should be sold, discharged of the Arrears of Taxes which had been assessed thereon, but subject and liable in like Manner as the rest of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, to the Taxes to be assessed for the future, by virtue of the said Acts of the fifteenth and twentieth of King CHARLES the Second, did cause five hundred and sixty-eight Acres of the said invested Lands, lying within the District herein before described, to be put up to publick Sale; and Matthew Robinson Morris Esquire, being the best Bidder for the same, at the Sum of one hundred Pounds, the said Corporation thereupon agreed with the said Matthew Robinson Morris for the Sale of the said five hundred and sixty-eight Acres, for the said Sum of one hundred Pounds, discharged of the Arrears of Taxes which had been charged thereon before the first Day of April one thousand seven hundred and fifty-four, and subject to future Taxes; and the most Noble John Duke of Bedford, Sir Thomas Drury Baronet, Matthew Wildbore and Thomas Waddington Esquires, having delivered Proposals to the said Corporation for the Purchase of one thousand seven hundred Acres, and twenty Perches of the said invested Lands (being the Residue of the said invested Lands lying within the said District) at the Price of one thousand Pounds, and such Proposals having been published in the publick News Papers, and Notice having been thereby given, that the said Corporation were ready to treat with any Persons who should be willing to give more than the said Sum of one thousand Pounds for the said Lands, and no Person having offered so much as the said Sum of one thousand Pounds for the same, the said Corporation did agree with the said John Duke of Bedford, Sir Thomas Drury, Matthew Wildbore and Thomas Waddington, for the Sale of the said one thousand seven hundred Acres, and twenty Perches of invested Lands, at the said Price of one thousand Pounds, discharged of all Arrears of Taxes, which at any Time before the conveying of such Lands shall have been charged thereon, and subject to future Taxes: And whereas it will be for the Benefit of the said Corporation, that the said Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty, should be impowered to sell the said invested Lands, discharged of the Arrears of Taxes, according to the Agreements entered into as aforesaid;' Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators, or any seven or more of them, whereof the said Governor or Bailiffs, or any of them, to be two, to grant or convey, under the Seal of the said Corporation, the said five hundred and sixty-eight Acres of invested Lands, to the said Matthew Robinson Morris, and the said one thousand seven hundred Acres, and twenty Perches of invested Lands, to the said John Duke of Bedford, Sir Thomas Drury, Matthew Wildbore and Thomas Waddington, freed and discharged of and from the Taxes which have been rated or assessed upon the said invested Lands, by virtue of the said Act of the fifteenth of King CHARLES the Second, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in Being, relating to the said Great Level, according to the before recited Agreements made by the said Corporation with the said Matthew Robinson Morris, and the said John Duke of Bedford, Sir Thomas Drury, Matthew Wildbore and Thomas Waddington; and such Grants and Conveyances so made shall be good and effectual in the Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the said Lands had been sold at the Shire-house in Ely, for Non-payment of Taxes, pursuant to the said Acts of the fifteenth and twentieth of King CHARLES the Second, before the said Lands became invested.

An Act for encouraging the Fisheries in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Concerning Fishery in Scotland refer to 13 Geo. 2. c. 30.

'WHEREAS the extending and improving of the British Fishery is of great Importance to this 'Kingdom, as it not only adds considerably to the national Wealth, but is moreover a fruitful 'Nursery of able Seamen for the publick Service: And whereas the same is greatly obstructed by cer- 'tain Restrictions, Exactions and Regulations, to which the Fishers and Curers of Fish in North Bri- 'tain are subject, either by Custom or the Laws now in Force: And whereas it further appears that it 'would be very advantageous to Trade in general, as well as to the Fishery, if the said Exactions and 'Restrictions were taken off, and such new Regulations made, as are more accommodated to the pre- 'sent Circumstances of both: And whereas by an Act made in the third Session of the first Parliament 'of the late Queen ANNE, in Scotland, intituled, An Act for advancing and establishing the Fishing Trade 'in and about that Kingdom, all her Majesty's Subjects of that Kingdom are authorized and impowered 'to take and cure Herring and White Fish, in all and sundry the Seas, Channels, Bays, Firths, Lochs, 'Rivers and so forth, of that her Majesty's Kingdom and Islands thereto belonging, wheresoever Her- 'ring or White Fish are or can be taken; and for their greater Conveniency, to have the free Use of 'all Ports, Harbours, Shores, Forelands and others, for bringing in, pickling, drying, unloading and 'loading the same, upon Payment of the ordinary Dues where Harbours are built, that is, such as 'are paid for Ships, Boats and other Goods; and discharges all other Exactions, such as one Night's 'fishing in the Week, commonly called Saturday's Fishing, Top-money, Stallage, and the like:' And for the further explaining, enforcing and amending the said Law; May it please your most Excellent Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty-six, all Persons whatsoever, Inhabitants of Great Britain, shall, and they are hereby declared to have Power and Authority, at all Times and Seasons, when they shall think proper, freely to take, buy from Fishermen, and cure any Herrings, Cod, Ling or any other Sort of White Fish, in all and every Part of the Seas, Channels, Bays, Firths, Locks, Rivers or other Waters, where such Fish are to be found, on the Coasts of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and of Orkney, Shetland, and all other Islands belonging to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; any Law, Statute or Custom, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: And if any Person or Persons whomsoever shall, after the twenty-fifth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty-six, under any Pretence whatsoever, presume to obstruct or hinder any Person or Persons from Fishing as aforesaid, in Moonlight Nights, or at any other Time whatsoever, in all or any, or in any Part of the said Seas, Channels, Bays, Firths, Lochs, Rivers or other Waters as aforesaid, or shall demand or receive any Gratuity or Allowance whatsoever, either in Money, Fish or otherwise, under the Name of Saturday Night's Fishing, or under any other Name or Pretence whatsoever, from any Fisherman or other Person, for the Liberty of Fishing in all or any, or in any Part of the said Seas, Channels, Bays, Firths, Lochs, Rivers and other Waters, as aforesaid; every such Person shall, for every such Offence respectively, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds Sterling, to be recovered in Manner herein after directed; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act of the third Session of Queen Anne in Scotland.

Power given to Inhabitants to take, buy from Fishermen, and cure White Fish, in any of the Seas or Rivers in Scotland, or Islands thereto belonging.

100 l. Penalty on Persons obstructing the Fishery, or taking any Gratuity for Liberty of fishing.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons employed in the said Fishery, on the Coasts of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, or on the said Coasts of Orkney, Shetland, or any of the said Islands, shall have and exercise the free Use of all Ports, Harbours, Shores and Forelands, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, or in Orkney, Shetland, or any of the said Islands, below the highest High Water Mark, and for the Space of one hundred Yards on any Waste or uncultivated Land, beyond such Mark, within the Land, for landing their Nets, Casks, and other Materials, Utensils and Stores, and for erecting Tents, Huts and Stages, and for the landing, pickling, curing, drying, and reloading their Fish, without paying any Foreland or other Dues, or any other Sum or Sums of Money, or other Consideration whatsoever, for such Liberty, except as hereafter excepted; any Law, Statute or Custom whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding: And if any Person or Persons shall presume to demand or receive any Dues, Sums of Money, or other Consideration whatsoever, for the Use of any such Ports, Harbours, Shores or Forelands, within the Limits aforesaid, so made Use of for the Purposes aforesaid, or shall presume to obstruct the Fishermen or other Persons employed in the taking, buying, or curing of Fish in the Use of the same, every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds Sterling, to be recovered and levied in Manner herein after directed.

CAP. XXXVII.

An Act for regulating the Proceedings in personal Actions in the Courts Baron of the Manors of Sheffield and Eccleſall in the County of York. PR.

'WHEREAS the Liberty or Diſtrict of Hallamſhire in the County of York is a large Diſtrict, extending itſelf over the Town and Pariſh of Sheffield, and ſeveral other Towns and Pariſhes in the ſaid County of York; and the moſt noble Edward Duke of Norfolk, Hereditary Earl Marſhal of England, claimeth a Franchiſe there, and to have the Execution and Return of all Writs within the ſame, as being ſeiſed of the ſaid Liberty to him and the Heirs Male of his body, with Remainder to his Nephew Thomas Howard of Norfolk Eſquire, and to the Heirs Male of the Body of the Honourable Philip Howard Eſquire, his late Father, deceaſed, with divers Remainders over; and the ſaid Edward Duke of Norfolk is ſeiſed to him and the Heirs Male of his Body, with like Remainders, of and in the ſaid Manor of Sheffield; and the Juriſdiction of the Court Baron belonging to the ſaid Manor of Sheffield, which has been uſually held every three Weeks from Time immemorial, extends over all the Parts of the ſaid Liberty, except over the Hamlet or Byerlow of Eccleſall: And whereas the moſt Honourable Charles Marqueſs of Rockingham, and Mary Marchioneſs of Rockingham his Wife, in the Right of the ſaid Marchioneſs, or their Truſtees, are ſeiſed for ſome Eſtate of Freehold or Inheritance of and in the Manor of Eccleſall; and the Juriſdiction of the Court Baron belonging to the ſaid Manor of Eccleſall, which has alſo been uſually held every three Weeks from like Time immemorial, extends over the ſaid Hamlet or Byerlow of Eccleſall, which is contiguous to the ſaid Town of Sheffield, and is within the ſaid Liberty of Hallamſhire: And whereas from Time immemorial Plea has been held in the ſaid ſeveral Courts Baron in all perſonal Actions ariſing within the aforeſaid ſeveral Juriſdictions, where the Debt and Damages have been under forty Shillings: And whereas a great Manufactory of Cutlery and other Hard Ware is now, and has been for ſome Time carried on in the ſaid Town of Sheffield and the Liberty of Hallamſhire, whereby, and by the late Increaſe of Trade in the ſaid Town, and other Parts of the ſaid Liberty or Diſtrict of Hallamſhire, the Number of Merchants, Traders and Artificers there is very great, and the ſaid Town and Diſtrict are becoming daily more populous: And whereas, although Juſtice hath for many Years been adminiſtered in the ſaid ſeveral Courts Baron in the moſt ſtrict and impartial Manner, yet the Method of compelling Debtors and other Perſons to appear to the Actions which are commenced in the ſaid Courts Baron, is in both the ſaid Courts by Summons and Diſtreſs infinite; which is a very dilatory, and often a very ineffectual Method for that End; and by reaſon thereof, and alſo by reaſon of the Expence which attends the Proſecution of Cauſes to Judgment in the ſaid Courts, and often afterwards, when ſuch Cauſes are removed up to ſome ſuperior Court, honeſt Creditors are many Times diſcouraged from attempting to recover the Debts due to them, and thereby many evil-diſpoſed Perſons, who have contracted ſmall Debts within the ſaid Liberty, are encouraged (though able) to refuſe or delay the Payment thereof, and do often ſet their Creditors at Defiance; therefore the Inhabitants of the ſaid Places which ſo lie within the Juriſdiction of the ſaid ſeveral Courts Baron have applied to the ſaid Edward Duke of Norfolk, and Charles Marqueſs of Rockingham, for their Conſent to ſome proper Method for regulating the Proceedings in, and amending the Defects which ſo reſpectively attend the ſeveral Juriſdictions of their ſaid ſeveral Courts Baron, and for preventing all unneceſſary Delays and Expences in the ſaid Proceedings, and for the providing from among the ſeveral Suitors of the ſaid ſeveral Courts Baron, fit, able, diſcreet and indifferent Homagors or Jurors to try all Iſſues which ſhall ſtand for Trial in any Plaint, Suit or Action to be depending in the ſaid ſeveral Courts, and the like fit, able, diſcreet and indifferent Homagors or Jurors for the finding of Inqueſts and the taking of Inquiſitions upon Proceſſes which may iſſue out of, or on any other Proceedings which may be had in the ſaid ſeveral Courts, in Nature of Writs of Inquiry of Damages at the Common Law; which the ſaid Edward Duke of Norfolk, and Charles Marqueſs of Rockingham, have readily conſented to, ſo far as the ſame can be done without ſubverting or derogating from the Juriſdictions of the ſaid ſeveral Courts Baron, or prejudicing the ſame:' Wherefore may it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it may be enacted, &c.

CAP. XXXIX.

An Act for explaining, amending, and rendering more effectual an Act made in the twenty-second Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making a free Market for the Sale of Fish in the City of Westminster; and for preventing the forestalling and monopolizing of Fish; and for allowing the Sale of Fish under the Dimensions mentioned in a Clause contained in an Act of the first Year of his late Majesty's Reign, in case the same are taken with a Hook.

22 Geo. 2. c. 49. This Act is in Part repealed by 33 Geo. 2. c. 27.

' WHEREAS by an Act made in the twenty-second Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making a free Market for the Sale of Fish in the City of Westminster; and for preventing the forestalling and monopolizing of Fish; and for allowing the Sale of Fish under the Dimensions mentioned in a Clause contained in an Act of the first Year of his late Majesty's Reign, in case the same are taken with a Hook; it is amongst other Things therein enacted, That if any Fisherman or other Person or Persons whatsoever, Natives or Foreigners, should keep any Fish at Queenborough, Gravesend, or other Place or Places, in any Well-boat, Store-boat, or any other Manner whatsoever, so as not to sell off their whole Cargo of Fish within the Space of eight Days from their Arrival on the British Coast, between North Yarmouth and Dover, after their first Arrival, at the respective Place or Places as aforesaid, every Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted by the Confession of the Party, or the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, should for every such Offence forfeit the whole Cargo of Fish belonging to him, and also the Vessel, with her Tackle, Apparel and Furniture, to be levied by Distress and Sale by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the respective County where the Offence should be committed; which Warrant or Warrants the said Justice or Justices was and were thereby impowered and required to make, upon the Information on Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses (which Oath the said Justice or Justices was and were thereby impowered and required to administer) and that the Produce thereof should go and be applied, one Moiety to the Use and Benefit of the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish where the Offence should be committed: And whereas many Difficulties have arose in putting the said Act in Execution, which have hitherto not only obstructed the Establishment of the said free Market at Westminster, but hath rendered ineffectual the other good Purposes of the said Act, and more particularly the preventing the forestalling and monopolizing of Fish in general: And whereas the said limited Time of eight Days for selling off the whole Cargo of Fish, as in the said Act mentioned, is found too short, in Consideration of the great Distance between North Yarmouth and Dover, and the said Towns of Queenborough and Gravesend, where the said Store-boats and Well-boats do usually lie to receive the Fish from the Fishing Ships, as it may often happen, that from the common Accidents of Wind and Weather so much of the said Time may be spent from the Time of their first Arrival, before the said Vessels can afterwards arrive at the said Places for unloading their said Cargoes into the said Store-boats or Well-boats, and for Sale thereof, that the said Fishermen may unavoidably incur the Penalty in the said Act mentioned for not selling off their whole Cargoes within that Time, and for that the Fishermen and others employed in the Lobster Fishing or Lobster Trade, do require an Enlargement of the Time for selling off their Cargoes, after their Arrival in the said River of Thames, the said limited Time of eight Days not being sufficient for that Purpose: And whereas, for the rendering more effectual the good Ends and Purposes of the said Act, it is necessary that a proper Officer be appointed to inspect and search the said Fishing Vessels, and the said Store-boats and Well-boats, for the better Discovery of such Persons who shall make Default in selling off their Cargoes within the Times limited for that Purpose, as it may be also very difficult, from the great Extent of the said Limits appointed for the first Arrival between North Yarmouth and Dover, to ascertain such Arrival, so as duly to bring the Offenders therein to Justice, without a continual Inspection: And whereas it is also necessary for the Purposes aforesaid to impower the several Mayors of Queenborough and Gravesend, and any other Persons acting as Justices, who are Members of the said Corporations, and any other his Majesty's Justices of the Peace between the said Towns and the Cities of London and Westminster, to act as Justices in levying the Penalties in the said Act, as well as such Justices of the Peace for the respective County where the Offence is committed: And whereas by the said recited Act it is enacted, That the several Kinds of Fish therein particularly named and mentioned, may be exposed to Sale, or exchanged for other Goods, provided such Fish are taken with a Hook, and so not fit or capable of being preserved alive, although the 1 Geo. 1. c. 18. said Fish should be under the Dimensions prescribed by an Act passed in the Reign of his late Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better preventing fresh Fish taken by Foreigners being imported into this Kingdom; and for the Preservation of the Fry of Fish; and for the giving Leave to import Lobsters and Turbet in foreign Bottoms; and for the better preserving of Salmon within several Rivers in that Part of this Kingdom called England; in the said recited Act mentioned; which Liberty was so allowed, that the Market might be the more plentifully supplied with such Sorts of Fish, and that the Publick might be served therewith at more reasonable Rates: And whereas such Liberty hath not been attended with such good Effects as was ex-

'pected, for that the Markets being supplied with such smaller Fish, doth enhance the Price of the largest 'Sort, and under Colour of the said recited Act under-sized Fish are sold, though not taken with a Hook, 'which may tend greatly to the Destruction of the Fry of Fish, and consequently the said Fishery in general 'for such Kinds of Fish; and that it will be more for the Benefit and Service of the Publick to revive the 'said Restraint for the Preservation of the Fry and smaller Sort of such Fish, and not to permit the Sale or 'Exchange of such several Kinds of Fish so catched with a Hook under the Dimensions in the said last re-'cited Act mentioned: And whereas for such several Purposes, as well as for others herein after mentioned, 'it is become necessary to explain and amend the said Act;' May it therefore please your most Excellent Majesty, that it may be enacted, and be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Fisherman or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, Master or Owner of any fishing Ship, Sloop, Smack or fishing Vessel coming from Sea, or other Person having the Conduct of such fishing Ship, Sloop, Smack or fishing Vessel, Natives or Foreigners, employed either in catching, bringing or vending of Fish for the Supply of the Cities of London and Westminster, shall break Bulk or make Sale of their Fish, or any Part thereof, between Harwich and the Nore, or between Margate and the Nore, to any Person or Persons to sell again, or shall not enter their Ship, Sloop, Smack or other fishing Vessel, at such Place or Places, and within such Time, as herein after mentioned, or shall keep any Shell Fish or other Fish whatsoever in such their Ship, Sloop, Smack or other their fishing Vessel or Vessels, or in any Well-boat or Store-boat, after such their Arrival, so as not to sell off their whole Cargo of Fish within the Space of eight Days, to be reckoned from the Day of such their Arrival at the Nore as aforesaid, and thereof shall be convicted before one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Counties of Kent or Essex, or before the Mayor, Recorder or such Aldermen for the Time being, who have Power to act as Justices of the Peace within the Corporations of Queenborough or Gravesend, on his, her or their own Confession or Confessions in Writing under his, her or their Hand or Hands, or on the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, which Conviction shall be final and without any Appeal whatsoever, such Ship, Sloop, Smack or fishing Vessel, Boat, Store-boat or other Boat into which the said Fish, or any Part thereof, shall be unloaded or delivered, with all Tackle, Apparel and Furniture to the same belonging, together with the whole Cargo of such Fish, shall be forfeited by the Owners thereof, and disposed of as hereafter mentioned; such Forfeitures to be levied by Distress and Sale by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace within the said Counties of Kent or Essex, or of the said Mayor, Recorder or Aldermen acting for the Time being as Magistrates within the Towns of Queenborough and Gravesend, or such Mayor, Recorder or Aldermen of any other Corporate Town between the said Towns of Queenborough and Gravesend, and the City of Westminster, as aforesaid; which Warrant or Warrants the said Justice or Justices, Mayors, Recorders or Aldermen, is and are hereby impowered and required to make and issue accordingly, and to be directed to the High Constable, Petty Constable, Headborough or Tithingman of either of the said Towns of Queenborough or Gravesend, or any other Towns as aforesaid near unto where any such Offences shall be committed, or where such Ship, Sloop, Smack or fishing Vessel, Boat, Store-boat or other Boat shall then be, to take and seize the same, and sell and dispose thereof within fourteen Days accordingly; and one Moiety or Half Part of the Produce of such Sale, after reasonable Charges deducted, shall go and be paid to the Informer or Informers, as the said Justices shall appoint, and the other Moiety to the Trustees appointed to put the said recited and this present Act in Execution, to be placed by them, or any five or more of them, or their Order, to the general Account of Surplus of Profits arising from the Fish Market, in the said recited Act mentioned, and to be appropriated as the said Surplus in the said Act is directed; any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Penalty on fishing Vessels employed for the Supply of London and Westminster Markets breaking Bulk, or vending their Fish, before their Arrival in the River, or not entering their Arrival, or not selling their Fish within 8 Days.

Penalty, how to be levied.

Application thereof.

II. Provided nevertheless, That in case any such fishing Vessel is freighted or loaded with Lobsters, or whose Part-loading may be made up with Lobsters, and the Fishermen or other Person or Persons whatsoever, Natives or Foreigners, who shall be Owners of such Lobsters or have the Power to sell or dispose of the same, shall sell off her whole Cargo of such Lobsters within twelve Days after the Arrival of such Vessel at the Place or Places herein before appointed for that Purpose, and in all other Respects conform to the Directions of the said recited and this present Act; then and in such Case the Sale of the whole Cargo of such Lobsters shall be and is hereby declared to be as good a Sale thereof, as if such Sale had been completed and made within the said limited Time of eight Days before-mentioned.

12 Days allowed for the Sale of Lobsters.

III. Provided also nevertheless, That it shall and may be lawful to and for every such Fisherman or other Person or Persons whatsoever, Master or Owner of any fishing Sloop, Smack or fishing Vessel coming from Sea, and to and for every other Person or Persons having the Conduct of any such fishing Ship, Sloop, Smack or fishing Vessel as aforesaid, and they are hereby impowered at any Time and Times, and as often as Need shall be or require, during their respective Voyages at Sea, and before their Arrival at the Nore, to shift and remove any Part of their Cargoes of Fish into any other Ship, Sloop, Smack, Vessel or Vessels, for the Ease of their Wells, the Preservation of their Fish, and the better separating such as are dead, dropt or sickly, from those which are sound and healthy; so that no Part of such Cargo of Fish be sold or disposed of, until their Arrival at or above the Nore as aforesaid; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Fishing Vessels may remove their Cargoes before their Arrival at the Nore, so as not to make Sale thereof.

IV. Provided also nevertheless, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Fisherman or Owner of any Peter-boat, or other small fishing Vessel used and employed for serving and supplying the Inhabitants of any City, Town or Village, or the Neighbourhood thereof, on or near the Banks of the said River, between the Mouth of the said River and the said Towns of Queenborough or Gravesend, to sell or dispose of their Fish in such Manner as hath been heretofore used, in case such Boats or Fishing Vessels are only used and employed for the Consumption of such Fish within such City, Towns or Villages, and the Inhabitants thereof, or of the Neighbourhood thereof.

Peter-boats, &c. employed for serving Towns, &c. near the Banks of the River, may dispose of their Fish as heretofore.
